Meet the filmmaker series at the Robertson Community Cinema

A unique programme for Robertson, 'Meet the Filmmaker' series invites film industry professionals to introduce movies they have been associated with. The program is run by Tony Williams, a film director now based in Robertson, along with his wife Anna.

Shine [PG]

Saturday 4 December 7 pm

The Art of the Director of Photography

Shine will be introduced by the film's cinematographer Geoffrey Simpson who has shot many successful films including Under The Tuscan Sun and Fried Green Tomatoes. Shine is a true story about the power of music and the miracle of love. It won an Oscar for Geoffrey Rush and was nominated for 6 more Oscars. It also won the AFI Best Achievement in Cinematography for Geoffrey Simpson.

A day of music in Robertson

Amazing Musical Journeys

with Andrew Ford

Music in film

A one-day workshop for music lovers

Join Andrew Ford on another amazing musical journey, this time into film music. In order to write his new book The Sound of Pictures (Black Inc 2010) Andrew has watched hundreds of films. More importantly, he's also listened to them. In this workshop, using the resources of the CTC's cinema, Andrew will discuss how directors make use of classical music, pop music and specially composed scores in films as various as High Noon and Psycho, Brief Encounter and Schindler's List, The Big Chill and The Godfather.

The Sound Of Pictures will be published in December, but advance copies will be on sale at the workshop.
