Official opening of carved bench seats in Pinkwood Park

by Lyndy Scott, REPS

Eric Guymer and Tiarna McGee unveil the plaque with Mayor Clr Duncan Gair Photo: Bob McInnes

On Thursday morning 10 September, many people gathered to celebrate the opening of the carved bench seats in Pinkwood Park.

These included members of the Robertson Environment Protection Society (REPS), Robertson Public School children and headmistress, Robertson residents, representatives from the Bundanoon Men's shed and the Wingecarribee Shire Council (WSC).

This is a REPS project and was made possible by a WSC Community Grant Award. The mayor of our shire, Councillor Duncan Gair, as well as Councillor Larry Whipper attended.

An acknowledgement of the Gundungurra tribe, traditional custodians of the land, was given by Wendy Lotter (Aunty Wendy). This was followed by a welcome to all attendees and artistic participants, plus an introduction by REPS outlining the history of Pinkwood Park and the art project. Part of that history was depicted in before/after photos and it was explained that two children from Robertson Public School drew leaves of the Pinkwood (Eucryphia moorei) for one bench and the Lilly Pilly (Acmena smithii) for the other. Their drawings were enlarged and the Bundanoon Men's shed members did a superb job of carving the leaves onto the bench tops.

The mayor was called upon to unveil the plaque, donated by the project's artistic director Celeste Coucke. The mayor asked Eric Guymer and Tiarna McGee to join him. These are the two school children whose art work was used on the benches. ...contd p3

Team Rejoyce raises over $15000 at Robertson Ball

The Robertson MNDNSW Country Charity Ball was held on August 1st at the Robertson Show ground pavilion. It was a huge success for Team Rejoyce's Lynda Leith, Michelle Van Eimeren, Jo Gair and Natasha Blenkinsopp raising just over $15 000 for Motor Neurone Disease NSW.

The night was a buzz with 165 people attending the ball. There were guests from Orange, the Blue Mountains, Wagga, Scone, Brisbane and Sydney. The show ground pavilion never looked so good with all the decorations and lighting.

Team Rejoyce would like to thank everyone involved in helping with The Robertson MNDNSW Country Charity Ball. It was great to see so much community spirit and excitement.

The weekend after the ball Team Rejoyce did the City2Surf. MNDNSW raised $55 000 in total from the City2Surf fundraising. Team Rejoyce raised $30 000 of that for MNDNSW!! Not bad for 4 girls from Robertson!

We have had lots of great feed back from The Robertson MNDNSW Country Charity Ball that Team Rejoyce is not sure what we can do for an encore... we'll have to think about that one! We are open to suggestions! Lynda Leith leith@aapt.net.au

History of Pinkwood Park (Sept. 2015)

by Helen Tranter

Where could this little triangle of land come from? The original Robert Campbell plan for Robertson village in 1865 was a rectangular grid of straight intersecting roads at right angles to each other, and this was how it existed for the people in the village for more than 50 years. Then in the late 1920s when the railway line was built it cut through most of the north-south roads, including Main Street, through several original properties and realigned Hoddle Street in a curve to the north. This triangle, part of one of those original properties, bordering on railway reserve land, was one of the results.

The Cheese Factory was built mainly on railway land in 1936 and a railway cottage was built on other railway land just to the west of the factory. The little left over piece of Main St. remained unformed, and the spare triangle of land just became overgrown with long grass.

In 1996 there was a proposal to close the bit of Main St. land and develop it for commercial purposes. This was opposed by REPS, Illawarra Electricity and community members and Council accepted the idea that instead, this land could be used for a nice little park at the eastern end of Robertson. In the subsequent Village Plan it was proposed for it “to be developed as an informal picnic area with some planting of indigenous trees and provision of seating” and that the Robertson Public School should be involved.

In 2000 a concept landscape plan for this site was put to Council by REPS, adding that this would be a good site for part of the 2001 Centenary of Federation Tree Planting in the village. The main trees proposed to be planted were the local native Pinkwoods (Eucryphia moorei) and the name suggested was “Pinkwood Park”.

Council agreed in principle and before the planting day they cut the grass and removed the old wire fence REPS had taken down. On the morning of Friday 30th March 2001 the planting went ahead with the school children, teachers and parents enthusiastically taking part.

In 2004, the cottage on the railway land between the Cheese Factory and Pinkwood Park was demolished by State Rail and the site cleared. In 2005, at REPS’ request, Council erected a vehicle barrier on the northern and western borders of the Park and the following year a Council grant of $500 allowed REPS to erect a “Pinkwood Park” sign for the park.

The Australian Rail Track Corporation (ARTC) erected a security fence in 2006 between the railway line and the park, which by that time had a number of flowering waratah bushes and pinkwoods. Also the whole area had now become regarded as a park and REPS prepared a landscape plan for it for Council’s consideration. However, before this could be considered, it was realised there was some confusion over the boundaries between Council and Railway land. As well, the route was being planned for the shared footpath from the Fountaindale Road to the Post Office. So the landscape plan, with seating, was shelved.

In 2012 the shared pathway was constructed. The vehicle barrier was taken down in the process and then put back, adjusted to the parking area which had been developed in Main St. New plantings were planned to suit the changed conditions.

REPS still hoped for the seating proposed in the village plan and in 2014 applied for a Council grant to achieve this. With the support of all the people listed on the plaque this is now a reality.

Robertson Artists selected for exhibition at Goulburn Regional Art Gallery

Artists Judy Benjamin and Peter De Lorenzo were part of an exhibition called a Bakers Dozen at Goulburn Regional Art Gallery in August/September this year. Bakers Dozen was an exhibition of works by 13 artists from the Goulburn, Canberra and Southern Highlands regions. Each artist presented a body of work showcasing their preferred medium. The artists were Judy Benjamin, Betty Bray, Barry Canhan, Elizabeth Charles, Peter De Lorenzo, James King, John Lascelles, Judy Mylonas, Kirstie Rae, Mark Sadler, Nick Stranks, Catherine Ward and Elizabeth Young.

Judy's works, mixed media on paper on canvas, are influenced by her concern for the environment. "The natural environment is represented by the all over patterning of random marks on which a geometrical structure is placed." Peter's work, acrylic on canvas, is inspired by the history of abstraction in art and in music.

CTC 2pm Sunday Cinema Series 2015

The Sky is Yours or 'The Woman Who Dared' by Jean Grémillon

An uplifting romantic drama based on a true account from the 1930s, an ordinary woman overcomes the pettiness of provincial views to break the women's world distance-flying record. A warm look at a working-class family as well as a triumphant tale of determination. Made in France during the German occupation, this radiant and empowering masterpiece, with its beautiful and direct imagery, might have become the seminal film of the French neorealism movement but was overlooked during the war. This character driven drama proves Grémillon to be one of cinema's true hidden masters.

Film duration 105 mins, b/w, French with English subtitles.

Garden Gates opening for Robertson Open Gardens Weekend 10-11 October

The Robertson Garden Club was established almost 20 years ago and has been a strong supporter of the Robertson Village as well as a venue for gardeners who would like to meet others of a like mind. We have been involved with the Robertson Show Society offering show prizes, providing donations to the Society and helping with beautification of the show grounds. We have planted Dahlias in a show ground garden which are always in full bloom at the time of the Show. In fact some have commented that the dahlias would win prizes in the cut flower section of the Show.

The Club has been involved in maintaining the Cherry Trees in Hoddle Street and recently planted more of the same Kanzan Variety near the Cheese Factory and also in Hampden Park.

Our major event of the year is the Open Gardens Weekend. This year it will be held on the Weekend of 10th and 11th October 2015. Eight gardens are open and tickets are $20 for all eight gardens ($15 concession), and $5 for a single garden. Tickets are available at the CTC in Hoddle Street. Tickets have a map of the garden locations and also feature Robertson businesses that support the event. Fliers of the event are available from the various village businesses.

Money raised from this event are used to support Robertson organisations such as the CTC, the Show Society, the Show's women's auxiliary, the Robertson Fire Brigade, The School of Arts and in beautifying Robertson.

We also have a Plant Stall at the CTC for the whole weekend. Cuttings and plants are propagated by club members.

We have a membership of over 50 and each meeting attracts around 40 members indicating a very active club. Each meeting features a speaker drawn from around the area who speaks on a range of subjects of interest to members. Regular trips are organised to visit local gardens and other areas of interest.

Our meetings are held at the Robertson Community Centre on the first Monday of the month starting at 1.30 PM. An afternoon tea is provided at the end of the meeting.

President: Geoff King, Secretary: Carmel Thomas, Treasurer: Elizabeth Hodsdon.

Hume Coal Project

Hume Coal is developing an underground mining project in the Sutton Forest area, roughly 10km outside Moss Vale. The company recently held community information sessions in Robertson, Moss Vale, New Berrima, East Bowral and Exeter. Issues raised at the sessions included health effects of dust, impacts on the water supply, the mining technique to be used, delays at level crossings, increased numbers of coal wagons and the social and economic impacts. You can view further information about this project including the companies responses to the issues raised at <http://www.humecoal.com.au/>.

Robertson Soccer a winner!

Despite the absolutely miserable conditions for play, the U13G Robertson Soccer team won the 2nd Division Grand Final against Hill Top in comprehensive fashion, 6 – 0, on Saturday 19 September in Bowral.

Parents, grandparents and supporters who attended the early morning game at Bowral's David Woods Oval also deserved a medal considering the atrocious conditions!

All players had a fantastic game in a team that consisted of a great selection of boys and girls. Well done all!

Robertson CTC News

by Karen Mewes, Manager CTC@Robertson

Spring has arrived with a burst of daffodils (and weeds) so we are planning a garden working bee in early October, if anyone would like to join us for a few hours of gardening and free coffee call to check the date. Whilst on the subject, a couple of our younger volunteers have now found paid employment which is great to see but does mean we are looking for volunteers to help keep the CTC open.

You don't have to be a computer expert or a barista, we will train you to use the coffee machine and give you some training on the computers, printers, scanners, binder and laminator so you can assist customers to use these. When we aren't busy you can be working on your own projects or take on a particular responsibility. A great way to gain experience, learn or refresh skills whilst helping others.

Meanwhile we have been running regular computer classes on Friday mornings. From complete beginners through to working online, blogging, intermediate Word and Excel. iPad classes will be returning later this term with extra subjects and one on one training is available so you can work at your own pace.

Call in on a Wednesday afternoon and Gary can assist you (if you happen to like jazz, blues and rock, he is also a musician and will be happy to chat music as well as technology). Thursday see Karen or

Sonja Fernando in her shop, Utopian Artisans

From Smash to Smashing Success

by Naomi Janzen

2 years ago, in broad daylight, Robertson resident Sonja Fernando's car was hit straight-on by someone coming down the Macquarie Pass. She was on her way home from her art teaching job.

As often happens in life, the worst endings can clear the way for bright new beginnings. Though Sonja's PTSD and multiple injuries make it unlikely that she will be able to return to teaching full time (and driving the pass is, so far, something she avoids at all costs), the 18 months of complete inactivity that followed the event proved to be fertile ground for sowing new seeds of creativity. Already adept in several artistic mediums, she dealt with the pain and boredom of that dark time by learning new ones - in particular, spinning and weaving.

Little did she know that what she was doing to keep from going mad would blossom into a new career for her, as both a shopkeeper and patroness of local artisans.

Her new venture "Utopian Artisans", recently opened in the CBD next to the big spud, is a bright space full of colourful art pieces, from Dorothy Baker's scarves to Pam Voysey's paintings to Brooke Munro's baskets - all handmade - with the exception of a fun collection of "recycled" vintage homewares which belong, Sonja reasons, because they have that same warm sense of perfect imperfection that handmade items have.

Everything in Sonja's shop, she explains, has a direct connection to her heart. It was either created by someone she loves or it was curated by someone she loves or someone she loves will be helping her conduct workshops on how to make art out of it.

Both a gallery shop and a "maker's space" with the addition of a large backroom Artisan's Shed and adjoining smaller private studio, this Bauhaus-philosophy inspired venture is a reflection of Sonja's belief that "artists should be paid" (she only takes 20% commission on the consigned pieces), her love of sharing knowledge and creative opportunities (the list of workshops, from resin-making to night-photography to children's basket-making grows every time someone suggests a new one), and her desire to provide "a hub where makers can come and meet each other, hang out together, share their craft and learn a new one".

Though Utopian Artisans has only recently opened its doors and some of the workshops won't arrive until 2016, already it's getting lots of traffic from locals and passersby alike. That's something that Sonja is still getting used to. "I never thought I'd have a shop. I had the little studio and they said 'Hey, you want it?' and I said 'yes', without thinking. Then went 'what have I done?'" Laughing, she is quick to add that she is so glad she did and now it just feels meant-to-be. Not only did it all come together, surprisingly, without any investment, "It's pushing me" she says, reflecting on the accident and her ongoing medical issues. "In a good way".

Vintage Crime Thriller Set in

by Tom Thompson

Most Australians know that Arthur Upfield wrote the Bony crime series, with an Aboriginal detective as star of nearly 30 novels published worldwide. Some will remember the 'Boney' TV series of 40 years ago, but few will know that one book was set in Robertson.

Arthur Upfield spent the last 15 years of his life living at 3 Jasmine Street in Bowral before his death in 1965. He wrote eight bestsellers while living there, including BONY AND THE KELLY GANG published in 1960. Readers in America know this book as Valley of Smugglers, and the Germans read this as Fremde sindt unerwünscht. There, tucked away in the mountains is Cork Valley, inhabited by hard-drinking Irishmen... An Excise officer looking for illicit stills has been murdered, which prompts a visit by Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte.

Several American critics assumed the book was set in Kangaroo Valley, as the only valley close to Bowral. One US critic, Ray Browne, says "It is a land of physical mountains and mountainous men. Everyman, and every one of the women, seems a physical giant, roaring in stentorian tones, living a heroic life and playing a giant game. It is a land of Irish giants, who do not smile on strangers."

Upfield's own notes tell us it really is set in Robertson, in the late 1950s, when moonshine from Robertson potatoes was - a good rum thing! If anyone has any more information, please write me.
